

National Guard Leaves For Summer Camp

Hondo's Heavy Mortar Co., of Texas National Guard will depart Sunday for summer field training with the 36th Division North Camp Hood. The unit will leave at 6 A. M., joining a convoy in San Antonio for the trip.

The local Guard will take the largest group of men ever to attend a summer encampment. Capt. R. E. Schneider, commander, says that about 90 percent of the company personnel will attend with 5 officers and 40 enlisted men going. Last year, only 19 enlisted men went to the summer training camp. Men interested in making the trip with the Guard may still enlist, Schneider said. Even though the recent recruiting drive was highly successful, another 10 enlisted men are still needed to bring the unit up to full strength, according to the commanding officer. Training will consist primarily of firing individual weapons with intensive work with the 4.2 mortar. Both offensive and defensive problems will be studied.

Capt. Schneider said the company was well-equipped for the camp. Schneider thanked Hondo employers for letting Guardmen off to attend the camp. The National Guard was organized in March, 1948 as an anti-tank company, but was changed to a heavy mortar unit after returning from summer camp in 1948. It is a part of the 141st Infantry of the 36 Division. No alert orders have been received for the Hondo company, Schneider said.

SCHOOL BAND PROPOSED

More Teachers Elected By Board

Three new teachers were elected by the board of trustees of the Hondo Independent School District Monday night, leaving just two vacancies to be filled before school starts on Sept. 5. Elected were J. Claude Robert, Jr., of Palestine, a graduate of Baylor University, to teach algebra studies in the elementary grades; Mrs. Robert Faseler of Hondo, to teach home economics; and Mrs. Emma Sadler of Hondo, to teach school music and high school choral work. Mrs. Faseler has been teaching homemaking at Yancey for several years, and Mrs. Sadler formerly taught music in Hondo.

Only vacancies existing are that of girls' physical ed teacher, and a teacher for the Latin-American school.

Other business enacted by the board was as follows:

Bus Transportation

Instructed the superintendent to comply strictly with the orders from the Texas Education Agency regarding the transportation of non-public school pupils.

Agreed to accept funds raised by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for a special band fund. If the money is not used for that purpose in three years, it will revert to the Jaycees.

Children Under Six

Voted to follow its established policy, and that of the Texas Education Agency, regarding the entrance of children under six years of age on Sept. 1. Only children who have reached their sixth birthday by that date will be eligible to enter school.

Accepted the resignation of C. D. Sadler "with regrets and expressed to Mr. Sadler their thanks for his excellent and unselfish service to the school and the community."

Met with a delegation from the Verdina school district to discuss the new bus route to that district.

Lawler Appeal Pending

Castro Board Buys New Land

CASTROVILLE — The board of trustees of the Castroville Rural High School District voted Monday night to purchase the Oscar Karm property on the east side of the Medina River, and demanded that Julius Jungman and Josie A. Bader accept the return of land bought by the previous board in 1949.

Both actions were passed by a 5-1 vote with Tommy Frey dissenting. Jungman and Bader are asked to accept a deed from the board within 30 days and return the purchase price of the property to the Castroville board.

An appeal by attorneys representing Jordan T. Lawler and others to the Court of Civil Appeals in San Antonio was on the agenda of the court this week, but no action was taken pending receipt of a transcript of the case. Lawler is appealing a ruling by District Judge Roger Thurmond in which he sustained a plea of abatement asked by the board. Lawler had asked for an injunction which would prohibit the new board from building a school on property other than on a proposed site in Castroville.

Rev. Spellman will conduct an afternoon service to be followed by the first quarterly conference of the year. It is hoped that all members of the official board of the Yancey church might be present for the conference.

Bus Operation Topic Of Report

Operation of county school busses was discussed in a report issued this week by C. F. Schweers, county superintendent.

The report revealed that county schools last year operated 27 busses at an overall operation expense of $53,913.58. Their gross earning was $37,416.50, making a deficit during the term of $15,597.08. The net earning as approved by the Texas Education Agency is $30,319 or short $22,694.58 of total operation cost. This is an average of $840 per bus which is the burden of the local district.

During the current term there were 100 tires and 38 tubes bought through the State Board of Control at a cost of about list price. Four busses and two batteries were also obtained from the board at reduced prices.

Busses consumed 32,683 gallons of gasoline and used 310 gallons of lubricating oil to travel the 453,077 miles to serve 1,190 eligible scholastics.

Local Board 48 To Meet Aug. 18

The next meeting of local board 48 will be held in Pearsall on Friday morning, Aug. 18, at 9:30 A. M.

New Fire Plug Installed At Well

CASTROVILLE — The City of Castroville reports the installation of a new fire plug at the city well. It will be of help to the Castroville Fire Department in its fire fighting, and its proximity to Moye Military School will also be of benefit in an emergency.

Rapid progress is being made on the addition to the St. Louis school. The outside brick walls are nearing completion.

Those 'Changed' News Items

By William R. Nelson

"Whenever I bring in a news item, why do you always change it all around?"

That question is one of the most frequently asked in every home town newspaper office in the country. Sometimes it is asked in considerable exasperation.

The answer is, of course, that news stories are easier to read, better understood, take less space, when they are written to conform to a somewhat flexible pattern. That style, developed over the years, is fairly uniform in all newspapers because it was designed to evaluate the facts for their news value and tell them quickly and clearly.

'Lead'

Is

Inclusive

A well written, straight news story presents its outstanding information in the opening paragraph, or lead. What follows after that is amplification, additional details.

There are excellent reasons why news story style is best, among them: (1) The reader can quickly read the lead, and quit, if the story fails to interest him or her. (2) It permits cutting or reducing the length of a story, to get it into a particular place in the paper, by eliminating from the bottom. As these bottom paragraphs contain less important details, their removal will not seriously reduce

Jay-Walkers To Draw B&PW Fines

A campaign to eliminate persistent jay-walking in the City of Hondo has been announced by Mrs. Millie Eckhart, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Hondo Business and Professional Women's Club.

The campaign will be launched on Saturday, Aug. 19, at which time members of the club will patrol the two main thoroughfares in the business district. A minimum fee will be exacted of all offenders on that day, the proceeds of which will be used by the club to purchase reflectors for all bicycles in the city as a safety and traffic control measure.

American Legion To Choose New Officers

Officers for the coming year will be elected when the American Legion holds its regular meeting Monday night, and Commander R. E. Schneider has requested all members to be present.

The meeting will be held at the Legion Hall at 8 o'clock, and refreshments will be served.

MERCHANTS POSTPONE AUGUST DOLLAR DAYS

Dollar Days will not be held during August by Hondo merchants because of special "Back To School" sales which many businesses will offer next week.

The event is sponsored by the Retail Merchant's Committee of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce.

Former Stars Play SWTJC On November 4

A band for Hondo High School is in prospect with the announcement this week that proceeds from a football game between Hondo all stars and Southwest Texas Junior College of Uvalde will be used to start a band fund.

Approval of the project was given to the Hondo Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor, by the board of trustees of the Hondo Independent School District Monday night. The board approved of the plan after hearing from Pete Knowles, representing the Jaycees.

Jaycees Sponsored Library

The Jaycees were sponsors of a similar game last year to raise funds for the establishing of a public library, now operating at the Chamber of Commerce office.

A spokesman for the Junior Chamber said that they had decided upon the band project because many persons in Hondo had expressed hope that a band be started here.

Nov. 4 Date Set

The Jaycees have signed a contract with the SWTJC Cowboys to play the game at Barry Field in Hondo on Saturday night, Nov. 4. Several boys who played with the All Stars last year have indicated that they would be on hand for the 1950 game, and Knowles asks that boys interested in participating contact him. The All Stars defeated the Cowboys 3-0 last year on H. Finger's 20-yard field goal in a game generally believed to be one of the best ever played in Hondo.

Other Clubs May Help

Knowles said that it would be impossible for the band to be established this year, but that the Jaycees have hopes of having enough funds on hand to organize it in 1951. He said that the Jaycees would welcome assistance from other civic organizations who might want to raise funds for the band during the year.

Complete arrangements for the game will be announced soon. Reserved seats will be available in advance, and tickets may be bought at several locations in Hondo and surrounding communities.

W. A. A. Withdraws Sale Of Village

The War Assets Administration has temporarily withdrawn from sale the land which was occupied by the Hondo Navigation Village.

In a letter to bidders, the government agency returned checks and said that due to the national emergency, which has developed since the first advertisement for bids, it has been decided to temporarily withdraw the property from sale.

Bidders will be notified if the property goes on sale again.

FIVE PAY FINES IN COUNTY COURT

Five men were fined in county court this week.

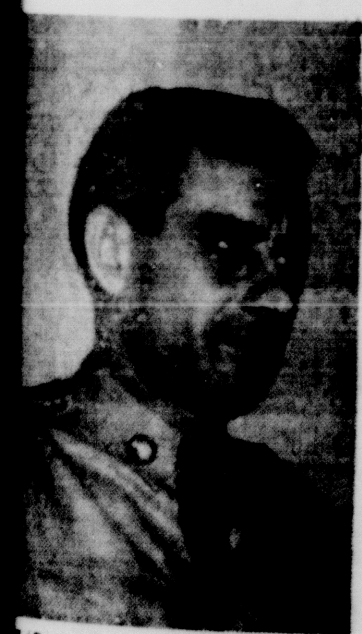

They were Antonio Salas Martinez, drunk driving, $250 and costs; Raymond Villago, drunk driving, $100 and costs; Setrino Estrado, aggravated assault, $50 and costs; Juan Hernandez, aggravated assault, $25 and costs; and Gregorio Prunedo, aggravated assault, $50 and costs.

THERE'S AN OLD MAN
IN YOUR FUTURE. . .

What Will You Tell Him?

There are just two things you CAN tell him. One is that you figured, during your productive years, that the old man in your future didn't matter, and you didn't put aside anything for him . . . so he'll have to go on charity.

Or you can say . . . "Old boy, I've been looking forward to meeting you, and every week I put a little aside with Great Southern Life to take care of you. You can rest, or fish, or putter in your garden, with apologies to nobody . . . the bills are paid."

Pick up your telephone . . . let's talk about the old man in YOUR future.

Bureau Hears Talks On Legumes

The Medina County Farm Bureau met at the Biry school house Monday night and heard a report by E. M. Delavan, president, on his trip to College Station, and three practicing farmers on "winter legumes."

A. C. Gilliam told the group he favored husban clover with or without oats, and found it was best to inoculate first year clover. He said that he had never lost an animal from bloat, admitting that he had nver turned hungry animals directly into a field of clover. He plants 10 pounds of seed to the acre and strongly believes in a 2-year succession. Some 300 head of sheep and a large number of cattle were fattened on a 100-acre field. Normally the crop furnished grazing to July, with original planting as near Aug. 1 as the season permits.

George Koch discussed the effect of clover on the crop that followed it, pointing out that land previously planted to clover produced much heavier than other similar land not planted to it.

H. H. Reus told of planting clover on a piece of land so depleted that it had to be abandoned. After a 2-year succession of clover, this plat produced 60 bushels of oats to the acre, 10 bushels more than his best land on which no clover had been grown.

The question of analysing soils to find the proper fertilizer was brought up and referred to the Board of Directors.

Also heard at the meeting were Joy Tilley, secretary of the Devine Chamber of Commerce; S. m Lanham, manager of the Medina Electric Co-op; and Ferd Rock, supervisor of the Soil Conservation Service.

C. F. Martin acted as secretary pro tem in the absence of the regular secretary, Ralph Stiegler.

PAVING MAY START SOON IN CASTROVILLE

CASTROVILLE — Paving will start as soon as the crew of men to do the work arrive, according to City Clerk Lafferty.

Material is on hand, and the survey for grading the streets at the proper level for drainage is completed.

DISTRICT COURT, Cases filed:

Three cases have been filed with District Clerk Emil Britsch. They are Eleno Aguilar vs. Josephone Aguilar, divorce; Weldon T. Moore vs. Rosella Moore, divorce; and Benito Santillano vs. Carolina Santillano, divorce.

One divorce was granted by Judge Roger Thurmond of the 63rd District last Wednesday. The case was Doris Marie Worley vs. Kenneth A. Worley.

My favorite actress is Helen Hayes. Not only is this because I believe her to be our greatest actress but it has been my pleasure to kow her personally. She is a real lady as well as a dramatic genius and is adored by her associates in the theater. I was greatly saddened not so long ago when her only daughter died in her teens. I asked Miss Hayes — or rather Mrs. Charles MacArthur — how a young girl in a small town should go about becoming an actress. Her ready answer was, get into the local Little Theater or other hometown dramatic activity and work from there — not come to New York until she is thoroughly prepared.

An out-of-town friend visited here and was taken for the usual sight-seeing tour, Radio City, Wall Street, the Statue of Liberty, Chinatown etc. — all of which cost virtually nothing and are the best things to see in New York — but he was not so impressed with these sights as he was with something else — something not so pleasant. What really opened his mouth was the unappetizing sight of the stumble-bums in the Bowery, lying sodden in doorways, reeling under the elevated railroad and generally drinking their way downward.

Michael Falleen operates an elevator in a midtown office building and has an Irish accent as thick as a shillelagh. He came here from the Emerald Isle twenty years ago and his smile looks like what I imagine the sun does over a Gaelic Valley. Like so many of his kind, he came here to "do me-self better" than his goat-herding in the old country. He laughed, "And sure there's an old man in this buildin' who reminds me of a go-at, with his little beard and bleatin' laugh."

Texas buildings are not as tall as these are in New York — but Texas tales are. There's hardly anything a person can say about New York but what some Texan can top it — and the funny part of it is, often it's true. Cal Farley dropped in here from Amarillo the other day but this time he was serious, and his talk was mainly about boys. Some of his philosophizing I jotted down: "When a boy runs away from home, he imagines he's done something — when he walks back, he knows he has . . . It's surprising what a hair cut will do for a boy . . . When a man slaps the seat of a boy's pants and says, 'Keep your chin up son, you can do it,' it means more to the boy than all the child psychology books ever written."

This is a town where anything can happen and sometimes does. Where you can bump into the world's greatest celebrity on 5th Avenue or sit near him in a restaurant. The city has some of the best things in the world and some of the worst. It is more of an international than an American city, but filled with thousands of foreigners of every description. Yet the average New Yorker is an ignorant person when it comes to the outside world, most of the natives never having been farther west than Bethlehem, Pa. Personally I am thankful I grew up in a little town 1122 miles from here where people bragged about having seen Gene Tunney pass through on the train and where a street corner was not too busy to stand on and pass the time of day with good friends.

Joe Smith said that he got to wondering about this country the other day and felt unsure of it. Why did it get caught napping at Pearl Harbor and in Korea? Then he went up to the public library here and saw on exhibit

OWL GRID HOPEFULS BEGIN TRAINING

About 20 prospects for the 1950 Hondo Owl football squad reported to Coach Tom Bridges Tuesday morning as training got underway.

Bridges said that several boys were working and would not be able to practice until school started. The boys are on a twice-a-day training schedule.

HARTUNG DIDN'T SKIP IT

Perhaps Cuero's youngest baseball fan Saturday was Betty Jo Riebschlaeger. Some time ago Betty Jo wrote Clint Hartung, the Hondo hurling star of the New York Giants, requesting him for a baseball bearing autographs of the New York club.

"If it is too much trouble," she wrote, "just skip it."

Hartung didn't skip it.

Betty Jo Saturday was in receipt of the ball and the autographs of the Giant players.

--Cuero Record

George Washington's Farewell Address, the private papers of Andrew Jackson and the story of Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders, all written in the handwriting of the people concerned. Joe came away very sure of his country and ashamed of himself for doubting.

It made me feel as if I were getting old — all too true — but when I stood beside that tobacco stand and heard that girl refuse to accept an Indian Head penny from a man, the flight of time was mightily rubbed in. Honestly, she didn't think it was a real penny, insisted he take it back and give her one with Abe Lincoln's head on it. Well, make way for us grey beards!

Softball Title Goes To Sinclair

Oilers Beat Yancey 6-2 For 1950 Championship

The Sinclair Oilers bounced back Monday night to defeat Yancey 6-2 in the third and deciding game of the Hondo Softball League championship play-off.

The Harvesters, who evened the series with a 4-1 win last Friday night, were unable to hold onto a first inning 2-0 lead as the Oilers tapped Bill McCutcheon and Johnny Faseler for nine hits, including home runs by Blackie Williams and George Schmidt.

Sinclair Pitcher Allan Nelson was in serious trouble only once as Craig Wilson and Elmer Faseler began the game with consecutive singles. Nelson then struck out three in a row, but the third strike on Johnny Faseler was dropped and he took first. Albert Wilson followed with a single to score two runs.

Bill McCutcheon handcuffed the Oilers for three innings before E. J. Williams singled to begin the fourth. Schmidt's grounder was played to second in an effort to force Williams, but both runners were safe as Wilson dropped the ball. Sinclair moved into a 3-2 lead when Manager Blackie Williams got his first home run of the season.

The Oilers batted around in the sixth to tally three more runs. Schmidt led off with a homer, and L. D. Williams, safe on an error, came home on Tilley's single. After Nelson had walked, Faseler relieved McCutcheon and Charles Hartman was safe at first on a close play to load the bases. Henson walked to force in Tilley and the scoring was over for the evening.

The Harvesters, behind Faseler's three-hitter, took the second playoff game 4-1 as they collected 10 hits off Nelson. Sinclair won the opener, 14-1.

The championship was the first won by the Oilers, and they were presented the Chamber of Commerce trophy by George Brucks, manager of the Flying Horses, after the game. The Harvesters won the trophy last year, and Yancey took the championship in 1948.

HONDO SOFTBALL LEAGUE CHAMPS

The Sinclair Oilers, 1950 champions of the Hondo Softball League, were not so gloomy Monday night after they had defeated Yancey 6-2 in the final game of the playoffs. This picture was made last Friday night, just after the Oilers had dropped a 4-1 decision to Yancey to even the series.

Ticket Orders Now Being Taken

With the opening game of the 1950 football season less than a month away, Supt. J. G. Barry this week reminded Owl followers to place their orders now for season tickets.

Tickets may be reserved by calling Mrs. Naomi Leinweber at the school. First priority will go to fans who have been reserving season tickets in the past. Season ticket holders will also have priority on post-season games, such as bi-district, etc., should the Owls go that far in the state race, Barry said.

Persons who have reserved tickets in the past and who do not intend to do so this year have been asked by the superintendent to notify Mrs. Leinweber so that the seats may be released to others.

A Personal Note

To those who "connived" with their children in surprising them with an open house on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage on August 7th, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Davis are deeply grateful. The many kind expressions and cordial good wishes extended, both in person and by card, will be ever cherished in their memory.

This column represents the opinions of the author on various subjects. Political comments or other critical observations do not necessarily reflect the views of The Anvil Herald. Mr. Davis has full authority to speak freely on any matter of his own choosing.

GLIMPSES AT THINGS THAT HAVE PASSED

Every man who leads an active life, even though of short duration, touches in various ways the lives and activities of others; and departing, leaves behind certain relics and mementos of his own activities as well as of the times in which and of the people among whom he lived.

The late Dr. J. T. FitzSimon, practicing physician at Castroville from the spring of 1896 until his death, touched the lives of the people of that community in many ways other than as their physician, and accumulated a collection of interesting historical relics pertaining to that town and its people.

Through the courtesy of his son, James FitzSimon, into whose keeping these relics have been intrusted, the writer has been privileged to examine the collection.

The first relic picked up fittingly concerned one of the Doctor's professional brethren and predecessor by many years as physician to the community, Dr. John Hoffman.

It is a well preserved, though age-yellowed, sheet upon which is inscribed in a fine, uniform and perfectly legible hand the following:

Bellefonte, June 18, 1846

We the undersigned Citizens of Centre County, in the state of Pennsylvania, being acquainted with Doctor John Hoffman for several years, and having known him as a practicing Physician, and Chemist, in our immediate neighborhood in good standing, and being informed that he is about leaving this part of the country for the State of Texas, We cheerfully give him this testimonial of esteem for him as a Gentleman, Physician and Scholar, hoping that prosperity may attend him in his new home, and that he may receive as he deserves the confidence and esteem of the good citizens of Texas, or elsewhere, as he enjoyed the same whilst a citizen among us.

Then, after a pen flourish, follows the signatures of fifteen of his friends, all in bold lettering and some with elaborate flourishes, each showing a personal pride in his penmanship.

Considering the fact that the entire document, signatures and all, were done with a goose-quill pen — steel pens were unknown then — they were justified in their pride of penmanship.

Note the date of the instrument, June 18, 1846, a hundred and four years ago, a little less than two years following the settlement of the first white men at Castroville in the fall of 1844.

The following unsigned and undated document in the handwriting of the late Ed de Montel, Esq., on one of his business letter-heads from his Castroville law office, though without explanation of source of facts or purpose of preparation, seems to be accurate and accepted data on the Hoffman family, having been preserved and found among the family papers:

"Petroneella Stephany, of Kaiserslautern, in the Kingdom of Bavaria, married Frederick Hacker in the year 1817 or 1818, and had issue alone one daughter, Mrs. Frederika R. Paul, of Castroville, Medina County, Texas.

"After the decease of her said husband in Europe, Petroneella Hacker married in America (Philadelphia) John Hoffman, M. D., and emigrated with him to Castroville, Texas, in 1846. There was no issue by this marriage.

"Dr. Hoffman died at Castroville June 25, 1879, and Petroneella, his wife, at the same place May 25, 1890.

"Real Estate and personal was left by John Hoffman at the time of his death acquired wholly in Texas, and therefore Community Estate."

Tax receipts among the other data indicate that Dr. Hoffman acquired ownership of certain lands out of the A. Erath original grant and also town lots 1 to 6, block 1, out lot 12, in the town of Castroville.

On these lots, situated in a sharp bend of the Medina River on the north side of the town, in a modest little home nestled in a shady pecan grove, he and his wife lived out a long and tranquil life.

They reared there this daughter of Mrs. Hoffman by her previous marriage, and she married an Englishman, James Paul. She preceded him in death by some years and left him childless.

The passing of the Hoffman family left Judge Paul sole heir to the family's estate, and he continued to reside there alone — aptly designated by a friend as "the lonesome man" — until his death in the early fall of 1897.

It was here in this lonely abode that this writer first made his acquaintance in the spring of 1896, less than two years previous to his death at an advanced age.

The man, though aged and infirm, was still the courteous and polished gentleman.

Highly educated — though where we were never informed — he was a practicing attorney at law in his active years, and for a number of years preceding and up to his death, he served his town as its Mayor, enjoying to the highest degree the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens.

He was, as it is recalled, the town's last Mayor under the town's first charter of incorporation which was adopted in the 1850's and abolished about the time of his death in the 1890's.

When or why Judge Paul came to America, to Texas and finally to Castroville, we were never informed; he did, on one occasion, tell us that the first time he made the trip from San Antonio to Castroville the entire area between the two towns was a vast expanse of unfenced, grass-covered prairie with only a sparse "mot" of trees visible here and there.

At the time he was telling us that, what is now Highway 90, flanked by well tilled fields almost the whole distance, was, a more or less, winding wagon-trail through a wilderness of mesquite brush.

One of the most striking things remembered about the man's home surroundings was the fact that the three Hoffmans had been buried on the premises just a few steps from the door and where the graves were under the constant observation of the one who had loved them in life; their freshly mounded surfaces and a few plants struggling with the shade of the over-spreading pecan trees showed his ever watchful care.

And here beside them, as was his wish, his own remains were laid away in their final rest.

Neither the abstract of title, deed of conveyance of property or will of the deceased is among the relics in hand, but there are documents showing that his physician, Dr. J. T. FitzSimon, and Judge T. M. Paschal, then of San Antonio but in former days a fellow member with the deceased of the Castroville bar, were appointed executors of his estate.

The property being located in Castroville, Judge Paschal, then an aged man and out of easy contact, and Dr. FitzSimon on the ground, it fell to the latter's lot to perform most of the functions of winding up the estate.

That is how the papers came to be left in his hands, and most of them have to do with the winding up of the estate.

There is among them a clipping from the columns of The Castroville Anvil of a Notice from the Administrators to the creditors and debtors of the estate to make settlement of all accounts, and with it, in the handwriting of the late Valentin Haass, then owner of the paper, is an

"From A Good Family"

Iowa Falls Citizen — We have a pet peeve. It's the decisions that are made because "he comes from a good family."

We're speaking of those instances in which justice is tempered — or perhaps we should say tampered with — because so-and-so "comes from a good family."

It's normally the case of a son (or a daughter) of one of the town's 400 who becomes involved in a scrape of one kind or another. Immediately there are efforts made to "keep it quiet" — to keep it off the police blotter, out of the courts and most importantly out of the newspaper.

The argument is that "he comes from a good family."

Normally that means that he comes from a family that is well known because it has money, a nice home, and a membership in the country club.

In contrast there comes a boy whose home is on the wrong side of the tracks, whose father earns the family bread through manual labor and whose mother doesn't have the time or the money to play bridge two afternoons a week.

In that case justice must be upheld to the last letter. It's another victory for law enforcement in its never-ceasing battle to "protect our community."

As a result the boy from the "good" family is led to believe that he can get away with it again. And the other boy has learned early in life, that all men (and boys) may be created equal but they don't stay that way long in our present-day society.

What is a "good" family? All families think they are "good." And virtually every family is attempting to do the best it can by its offspring. Every mother, whether she feeds her family on oilcloth or linen, is pained when her children stray from the path.

Who is to judge who is "good" — and by what standards?

For our money we can't. Nor do we intend to try.

REGISTRANTS OF WORLD WAR II DON'T HAVE TO NOTIFY BOARDS OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS, STATUS

AUSTIN, Texas, August 10 — Some men registered under the World War II draft act, now past 40 and 50 years of age, are attempting to advise old local boards of changes of address and status, although these draft boards have been out of existence for years.

As a result, these cards and letters are flooding present local boards and Selective Service headquarters here.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, advised today that "these men no longer have to advise of any change of address or status, as the law under which they registered was terminated by Congress in 1947."

The only men who are obligated to keep local boards advised are those registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948, which became law on June 24, 1948, the state director pointed out.

"Any man who has registered with Selective Service in 1948, 1949, or 1950 is obligated to advise his local board of address and status changes," Gen. Wakefield said. "Any man who registered with any local board prior to those years is not required by law to do so."

The state director said that every man should ask himself the question: "Should I be registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948?"

The answer, says Gen. Wakefield, is simple. If the man was born on August 30, 1922, or after, he is required to be registered, provided he is not under 18. If he was born prior to August 30, 1922, he is not required by law to be registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948.

Males are required to register on their 18th birthdays or within five days thereafter.

Vocational Ag Teachers Meet

The annual Vocational Agriculture Teachers State Convention held in San Antonio last week was one of the most inspiring meetings of its type ever held, according to John McAnelly. There were 843 vocational agriculture teachers from all over Texas at the convention. The three day program featured speakers on the various phases of the Texas Education Agency. The theme of the entire convention centered around how the vocational agriculture program of the state could better serve the people.

Richard John Nott, an exchange student from Great Britain, gave an interesting talk on the farming enterprises of England. Richard was brought to Texas through an exchange by the National Future Farmers of America and the Young Farmers Club of England. Nott has been in Texas two months visiting Future Farmer boys all over the state. He attended the state FFA convention in San Antonio last month.

His talk pictured the problem England faces today with her dollar shortage and her greater need of home-produced food. He stated that England has bought much farm equipment from the U. S.

NOW YOU CAN ANGLE OR STRAIGHTEN YOUR DISK HARROW-

ON THE GO!

Now... John Deere Disk Harrows can be quickly straightened for crossing grassed waterways or wet spots and angled again without stopping or even slowing down. When equipped for operation with the new John Deere Power-Trol, smooth hydraulic power angles or straightens the disk gangs at the touch of the operator's hand on the convenient control.

All John Deere Disk Harrows are regularly equipped with a simple, positive trip-rope control for angling or straightening the disk gangs from the tractor seat.

The sturdy John Deere "JB" is a double-action harrow with no costly built-in weight to bury it in light soil; yet in hard ground or tough stalk conditions, you can add weight to secure plenty of penetration. Flexible construction, ample clearance, proper weight distribution, and easy adjustment—these are other important features that make it easier to do good disking with a Model "JB". Serve Taste-Tempting Salads for Summer

Salad Days

THERE'S NOTHING quite so cooling as a jellied salad brightly garnished with crisp greens. There's nothing quite so delicious as well chilled fruit or vegetables attractively arranged on frosty looking lettuce, watercress or endive. You can make a meal out of a salad that's protein-rich, or, if you prefer, you can combine both the salad and dessert course into a luscious fruit salad.

*Jellied Tomato Salmon Mold
(Serves 8-10)
2 envelopes plain gelatin
1 1/4 cups water and juice from salmon
1 10 1/2-ounce can condensed tomato soup
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 16-ounce can salmon, drained well
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup water. Combine soup and remaining water; heat to boiling. Remove from heat. Add softened gelatin and cream cheese; beat with rotary beater until smooth. Cool. Add onion, salmon and mayonnaise. Pour salad into a greased 8-1/2 inch mold. Chill thoroughly.

Tomato Aspic Ribbon Loaf
(Serves 8-10)
Layers 1 and 3:
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
3 1/2 cups canned tomato juice
2 teaspoons onion juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
Layer 2:
1 1/2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
4 eggs, hard cooked and diced
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper
1/2 cup light cream
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon salt

Layer 1: Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup cold tomato juice. Heat balance of juice to a full boil. Add onion juice, salt, and gelatin. Stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Place half of mixture in a loaf pan (8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches). Chill until firm.
Layer 2: Soften gelatin in cold water. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add to balance of ingredients and mix well. Spread over first layer. Chill again until firm.
Layer 3: Pour remaining aspic over egg mixture to form third layer. (Soften aspic, if necessary, over hot water.) Chill again until firm. Unmold and garnish with salad greens. Slice to serve.

Cool Sea-Food Platter

2 tablespoons French dressing
1 cup diced celery
1/2 cup diced cucumber
2 tablespoons chopped radishes
1 tablespoon capers
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Salt, pepper, paprika

Flake tuna and crab meat. Remove black line from shrimp. Marinate tuna, crab meat, and shrimp in French dressing 15 minutes. Combine with remaining ingredients. Arrange all in lettuce-lined salad bowl. Garnish with additional shrimp, water cress, and lemon wedges. Hostess serves from salad bowl. Pass more mayonnaise.

Fruit Basket Salad

(Serves 8)

2 avocados
1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup chopped pecans
1 cup chopped ripe olives
1 teaspoon minced parsley
1/2 teaspoon salt
3-4 bananas
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Melon balls
Strawberries, halved
Blueberries
Peach halves
Wedges or slices of fresh pineapple
Water cress

Pare avocados; halve. Fill halves with cottage cheese combined with nut meats, olives, parsley, and salt. Press two halves together; sprinkle with lemon juice.

Arrange fruits on water cress. Pass Fruit Dressing: Combine 1/2 cup sugar or light corn syrup and four teaspoons enriched flour; gradually add 1/2 cup vinegar. Cook over low heat until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Add one teaspoon salt, two teaspoons paprika, one tablespoon onion, minced fine and two teaspoons celery seed; mix thoroughly. Pour 3/4 cup salad oil into mixture very slowly, beating constantly with rotary beater.

Party Chicken Salad

(Serves 8-10)

3 cups cubed, cooked chicken
1 1/2 cups diced celery
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup seedless grapes
1 cup toasted almonds
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon capers
1/2 cup light cream
1 cup mayonnaise

Combine chicken, celery and lemon juice. Chill one hour. Add grapes and almonds. Combine remaining ingredients. Add to chicken. Toss. Garnish with slices of hard-cooked egg.

Grated American cheese mixed with chopped green pepper, diced onion, chopped hard-cooked eggs, stuffed olives and seasoned with catsup makes a good mixture to spread on buns. Broil until cheese bubbles.

Sauteed, corned beef hash makes a hearty luncheon sandwich when served on toasted, buttered bread or buns. Spread the hash with tartar sauce and top with lettuce and another piece of bread or top half of the bun.

BENTSEN Reports From Washington

WASHINGTON — A home-front mobilization bill has been passed by the House. This bill gives the President authority to enact price, wage, and ration controls. The vote was 383 to 12. Your congressman voted for it.

But, before this bill passed, the House debated several approaches to the problem. Two weeks of debate passed before this bill was approved.

It now appears that if purchasers will remain calm and if they will not create artificial temporary shortages by hoarding, controls to stop speculators will be sufficient unless the military operations extend beyond Korea. In this bill the President has been given far-reaching powers. They, evidently, will not be put into effect unless conditions warrant them.

SITUATION TODAY

We must remember, however, there are some differences between the economic and military situation today and that of the past war.

1. On the food front, the Department of Agriculture has mountains of surplus food supplies stored. In view of this, it's not only shameful, but foolish, to hoard.

2. During the last war we had over 13 million men and women in uniform. This time it is estimated we will have about 2 1/2 million.

3. We have built up stockpiles of strategic materials which we did not have in the last war.

4. Our military needs now planned call for somewhere between 8 to 15% of what the nation produces. During World War II over 1/3 of our nation's output went to maintain our military forces.

5. For those who are worried about new cars and appliances being short because of the military's use of steel, reports show only about 6% of our steel production will go for that purpose.

To me, this all adds up to the fact that the President will not have to use all of the power to control the economy of this country that has been given him in this bill as long as we purchase sanely and the war does not extend beyond Korea's borders.

COMMUNISM

Your congressman and the other members of the House last week voted overwhelmingly for contempt citations to be issued against witnesses before the Un-American Activities Committee who refused to answer questions including the $64 — one asking whether or not they are communists.

COTTON

The House has passed a bill which cuts cotton quotas for 1951 for our district below the 1950 allocation. Your congressman voted against this bill. Not only do I feel the apportionment of the quotas is grossly unfair, but, in addition, the overall acreage of the nation should be increased substantially beyond that allowed under the provisions of the bill. I do not believe quotas should be reduced at a time when we are stockpiling iron, manganese, tin, copper and yet have this country facing a rapidly dwindling government stockpile of cotton — which is just as essential and which has dropped from 6 million from January 1, 1950, to less than 3 million bales today — and is continuing to rapidly drop.

FALCON

I, just as you, have become increasingly concerned over the delays and initiation of the construction of Falcon Dam. As your representative I have continued to press for its speedy construction, particularly in my field of legislation and appropriations. In response to questions to the government agencies about when construction would start, I have received statements from them for the past year and a half which have not proven to be over-optimistic. It appears that the difficulty stems largely from the fact that the interests of two nations are involved, sometimes conflicting and always handicapped by language difficulties and by differences in the laws of the two countries. I have been disappointed that these obstacles have not been overcome more rapidly. But I am hopeful that construction will be initiated at an early date.

A lot of people are late for church because they have to change attire; and a lot of others because they have to change a dollar.

The IBWC has assured me that everything is being done and will continue to be done to prosecute this work with the utmost diligence so that actual construction can be initiated at the earliest possible date and concluded as soon as possible.

I will continue to do everything I can to assist insofar as I can here within the scope of my duties. Your congressman helped pass another bill last week for Falcon Dam. This includes enabling legislation which was not necessary for the letting of the contract on the dam but will assist in the ultimate completion of the project. Adios.

The Seco Philosopher

J. A. HEARS OF SCARE BUYING, FAILS TO SELL SURPLUS SACKS

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm won't get anywhere with his plan this week, and we hope he doesn't. Dear editor:

I don't listen to the radio very much as it's too long between news casts and besides when I'm learnin the news I like to pick out the parts I'm interested in, while on the radio you have to take it all in or risk dozin off right when something you want to hear may come on, it's like havin to listen to your wife, while with a newspaper you can skip over the news you ain't interested in or dodge the editorials on matters you already got your mind made up about, but I was listenin to the radio the other night and heard a program about more of this scare buyin.

As I understand it, the buyers is not the only ones guilty, some stores is sort of promotin the idea

(Too Late For Last Week)

Arnold Rihn returned home after being stationed with the army in Japan for the past several years. He received his discharge last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rihn of near Devine. One day the past week all the children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rihn met at home for the first time in six years.

Mrs. Todd Shaw and family of Florida is visiting her mother, Mrs. Adella Heath a few days. Mrs. Shaw's husband has been sent overseas with the army.

E. M. Delavan returned from A. and M. College on Friday after spending several days attending a school of instruction for the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Marvin Haass and son, Marvin Dale, visited in Houston the past week.

If you want your progress to stop, just be totally satisfied.

Worry kills more people than work, because more people worry than work.

Flattery is a form of soft soap; and soft soap is mostly lye.

Before you question your husband's judgment, take another look in the mirror.

too, urgin their customers to buy this or that, especially the things they ain't havin much success in movin or things t h e y can get? plenty of, and I decided to try it out on one of my neighbors.

I run into him in his field yesterday and we got to talkin about the war and shortages and I casually mentioned that I understood there was gonna be a shortage of tow-sacks, looked like tow-sacks was gonna be on the critical list, might be years before we had enough to go around, but it just happened that I had a whole stack of em in my barn and while I probably could get twenty-five cents apiece for em if I tried, I'd let him have em for twenty cents on account of him bein my neighbor, provided he wouldn't mention it to anybody.

But he apparantly hadn't been keepin up with the news, said he didn't have no use for any tow-sacks and if he did and they wasn't available when he needed em he'd do without and figured he'd keep on livin about as well. You could see he wasn't keepin up with the news and was out of touch with the times. That's the trouble with some people, they don't keep up with things.

If you know of anybody short on tow-sacks, let me know. There ought to be somebody around here I can unload on. Look what they've been doin with pillow slips and sheets.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

intemized statement of the insertions of the notice with a bill for the same.

The bill, as well as a number of others, is marked paid.

There were no heirs to claim the property left by Judge Paul and having no access to his will, which is not among this collection of relics, we can not say how he devised his property.

We remember, however, that the lots on which the family had so long resided were conveyed to the town with the proviso that it should be donated to the town for the purpose of building a factory, hotel or other utility that would be an economic asset to the town.

A notice to that effect and soliciting a taker of the property was appearing in The Anvil when this writer purchased the paper in April, 1900.

It was carried continuously in the paper without compensation to the paper or result from the advertising until The Anvil moved from Castroville and merged with The Herald in October 1903.

FIRST OF THE FINE CARS IN VALUE

BIG MOMENT- with a Double Impact

It's a big moment when any new car rolls up to your door and you start out fresh and spanking bright.

Think, then, what it's going to mean when that new car is a ROADMASTER like this one pictured here.

You'll swing wide the door and slide into a car that's truly fine—and looks it.

You'll put foot to treadle and touch off the might of a great, 152-horsepower Fireball straight-eight that's ready to master any road—or anything it meets there.

You'll have the silken magic of Dynaflo Drive to simplify your driving, ease your way. A handsome flexible steering wheel, automatic windshield washers, soft Foamtex cushions, and many other items that are "extras" elsewhere are standard equipment here.

But even while you enjoy all that, you've a still deeper satisfaction enriching your pleasure.

For here you have not only a fine car, but a sound and frugal investment as well.

You have paid less per pound than any comparable car costs—and automotive men will tell you price per pound is the soundest measure there is of solid, thoroughgoing merit.

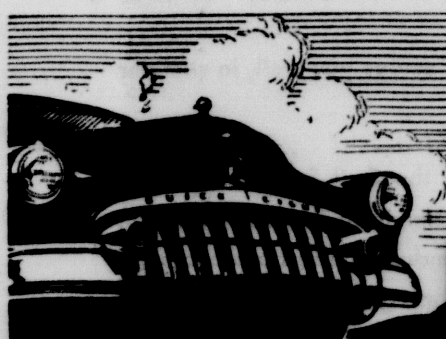

You've bought quality—top quality—all the fine things a fine car should provide. But you haven't spent a penny more than a fine car need cost.

And that can mean a lot. For instance—

Drop in on your Buick dealer. Try out a ROADMASTER. Match it, feature by feature and point by point, with any other fine car on the road.

Then get the price.

You may well find that you can get not only a new ROADMASTER for the sum you had in mind—but maybe a new fur coat for your wife as well!

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT. This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.
